TERM 1 2013 - FREE!

mondays

START THE PRESS - Newspapers are back!

Got a hot scoop to make the front page? Got a scandal to expose? Write about breaking news in the local community or your school, review a fantastic film or trumpet the latest sporting triumph. If you'd like to keep the public informed then join us on Monday afternoons.

Students: Primary, grades 3-6. Monday 4th Feb until Monday 25th March 3:30-4:30pm

tuesdays

The Correct & Accurate Portrayal of Teenagers Today: A Magazine

Fancy being judge, jury and editor? Well, we want to start a magazine and we'd love to have a group of hard-nosed teenagers on the inaugural editorial board. Work with experienced editors and writers to craft your own piece of writing and stamp our first 'zine with a true teen voice.

Students: High School, grades 7-11. Tuesday 12th Feb until Tuesday 26th March 4:00-5:00pm

wednesdays

READERS BEWARE - Your fate is in your hands...

You walk into a room. There is a pencil. Do you pick up the pencil? If you do, go to page 52. If your hands have been replaced with suction caps, go to page 12. Help us write the best choose-your-own-adventure story ever. What's going to happen? Who knows! Join us and decide...if you dare.

Students: Primary, grades 3-6. Wednesday 6th Feb until Wednesday 27th March 3:30-4:30pm

thursdays

People of Earth - turn on your RADIOS!

Did you hear the news? There's a Martian invasion heading to earth! Luckily you'll be on the ground Prepare your sound effects, prime ministerial speeches and police warnings. We're going to write and record a radio play about the (maybe?) end of the world!

Students: Primary, grades 3-6. Thursday 7th Feb until Thursday 28th March. 3:30-4:30pm
