CREATE A LASTING LEGACY WITH US

Leaving a gift in your will to Story Factory

Thank you for your interest in leaving a gift in your will to Story Factory. We're deeply honoured that you're considering us in this important decision.

A gift in your will is a powerful way to ensure your legacy lives on, helping the next generation of young people from under-resourced communities find and share their voices, imagine new worlds and write their own futures. Even a small gift can create a lasting impact.

If you decide to leave a gift to Story Factory, we encourage you to discuss your intentions with your family and loved ones to ensure your wishes are understood and respected.

A life-changing Impact

DEB FULWOOD, LONG TERM STORY FACTORY
SUPPORTER

"I attended the public meeting at the Alexandria Hotel more than 10 years ago when Story Factory was just a concept. The potential was very clear but I don't think anyone thought Story Factory would grow, mature, throw lifelines and influence individuals and systems in the way it has done since those early days.

Story Factory continues to have a profound and direct impact on the lives of many, many young folk; but also on their families, their communities and the institutional systems that surround young lives. There is a multiplier effect of its activities and impacts. And I want that to continue.

That is why I have made a bequest in my will to the Story Factory."
